

Bryan Strader, MD

President & CMO, Ambulatory Services TriHealth Physician Practices

Bryan Strader, MD, is the President of TriHealth Physician Partners. He joined TriHealth's Department of Internal Medicine in 2006, and practiced as a hospitalist for 20 years. Prior to his current role, he served as Director of Hospital Medicine at Bethesda North Hospital for four years and as Chief of Inpatient Medicine for TriHealth for three years.

Under his leadership, the TriHealth Inpatient Group expanded to encompass coverage of six separate hospitals, and the hospital medicine division has grown to 70 full and part-time board certified Internal Medicine physicians.

During his tenure at TriHealth, Dr. Strader has served as the Physician Executive for the TriHealth Inpatient Institute. Since 2016-17, he has served as Chairman of the Board for the TPHO. Additionally, Dr. Strader currently serves as Chief Medical Officer (CMO) for Ambulatory Services for TriHealth Physician Partners and is a member of the Bethesda North Hospital Executive Committee.

Dr. Strader received his undergraduate degree from Wheaton (IL) College and his medical degree from the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Strader enjoys traveling with his family, running, golfing and hiking. On a voluntary basis, he serves on the medical staff for Young Life International, a non-for-profit faith based camp for adolescents around the world.
