President & Chief Executive Officer Hospice of Cincinnati

Gayle Mattson joined Hospice of Cincinnati (HOC) in June of 2019 as President & CEO. Gayle has a wealth of experience in hospice and healthcare leadership and has a track record of successfully implementing growth strategies, while enhancing the patient experience and fostering higher levels of employee engagement.

Gayle comes to HOC and TriHealth from Haven Hospice in Gainesville Florida, where she served as president since 2016. At Haven, she developed new programs to better serve patients and families, while at the same time, implementing strategies to improve employee engagement. Prior to Haven, she served as chief operating officer of Pathways Home Health, Hospice and Private Duty in Sunnyvale, California.

Gayle spent the first 13 years of her career as a registered nurse at Allina Health in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Subsequently, she assumed administrative roles of increasing responsibility within Allina, including serving as president of Allina's home care, hospice and palliative care business. She also served as president of North Memorial Medical Center in Robbinsdale, Minnesota, a 500+ bed trauma-one hospital.
