

London Quicci

President & Chief Operating Officer
Bethesda North Hospital

London Quicci is the President and Chief Operating Officer at Bethesda North Hospital. He provides executive leadership in the delivery of the hospital's strategic, financial operational and programmatic objectives. He also provides oversight for all on-campus operations as well as operations of associated ambulatory sites.

London received a Bachelor of Arts in Business Leadership from Baker College (MI) and a Master's of Science in Healthcare Administration from Central Michigan University.

Quicci came to TriHealth from Sinai-Grace Hospital in Detroit, Michigan where he served as the Chief Operating Officer for the 404-bed community based hospital. Prior to that, London was the Regional Vice President of Surgical Services for all of Detroit Medical Center's locations. He was also honored to serve in the United States Army and Army Reserves until his retirement in 2016. While serving, he was deployed overseas on multiple occasions including two tours of duty in Afghanistan (2009-2010 and 2012) while at Sinai-Grace. He continues to be actively involved in the Veterans of Foreign Wars and many veteran causes.
