

Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship Applications 2019

The Auxiliary of McCullough-Hyde Memorial Hospital/Tri-Health is offering financial assistance to individuals preparing to work toward an RN degree. Our primary objective is to provide scholarships to candidates in our hospital service area who demonstrate the potential to succeed in nursing.

The award for each of the two scholarships for the 2019-20 school year is $2500. The scholarships are funded in part by gifts sent to the Auxiliary in memory of, or appreciation of, designated individuals.

Criteria for the scholarships is stated below:

1. Completion and submission of the scholarship form by April 1, 2019.
2. Submission of high school transcript through mid-year of the senior year / or most recent grade transcript from school currently attending or previously attended.
3. Three letters of reference on behalf of the applicant to the Scholarship Committee no later than April 1, 2019
4. Letter of acceptance from school with accredited nursing education program, forwarded to Scholarship Committee by April 1, 2019.
5. Inclusion of personal essay / statement of financial need, goals, personal qualities and experience, and level of availability (no obligation) to work part-time at McCullough-Hyde Memorial Hospital/Tri-Health.

(All documents must be hard copies, although reference letters may be e-mailed directly to address below.)

(Former recipients may re-apply by completing all of the above steps)
Scholarship Committee should receive all items by April 1, 2019

Recipients will be selected based upon the following criteria:

- Completed Application / School Acceptance Letter / Letters of Reference
- Grade Point Average / Rank in Class / Test Scores (ACT—SAT)
- Essay: Motivation, goals, financial need
- Leadership ability
- Residency in hospital service area

(Motivation and leadership ability will be evaluated from essay and references.)

Applications are available at McCullough-Hyde Memorial Hospital/TriHealth, in the guidance offices of hospital service area high schools, and online at
